

EWA Is Proud to Announce That Voviette Morgan, Special Agent in Charge, Los Angeles Office FBI, Has Been Selected for the EWA January 2020 Cohort of Women Leader Awardees

The Exceptional Women Awardees Foundation (EWA, Los Angeles CA) today announced that after interviews with multiple candidates, Voviette Morgan, Special Agent in Charge, Los Angeles Office FBI, has been selected to participate in their Cohort of Women Leaders in the January 2020 EWA Program.

LOS ANGELES (PRWEB) FEBRUARY 04, 2020

The Exceptional Women Awardees Foundation (EWA, Los Angeles CA) today announced that after interviews with multiple candidates, Voviette Morgan, Special Agent in Charge, Los Angeles Office FBI, has been selected to participate in their Cohort of Women Leaders in the January 2020 EWA Program.

"SAC Voviette Morgan is an example of one of the finest leaders in the FBI, having dedicated her life over the past 25 years to the safety of the people of the United States of America," commented Lorraine Segil, Chair and CEO of The Exceptional Women Awardees Foundation. "She is now the Special Agent in Charge of the Criminal Division for the Los Angeles Field Office. Ms. Morgan most recently served as the chief of the Internal Investigations Section in the Inspection Division at FBI Headquarters in Washington, D.C. As one of only two public sector women in our EWA , we look forward to exchanging insights from the private sector with SAC Morgan as well as learning from her the challenges and opportunities in her position. We are delighted to welcome her into EWA, to provide her with the support that our network of over 35 industry leaders can offer her."

"We congratulate SAC Morgan for this honor and know that she will bring her significant experience and know-how to those in the business community who are part of the EWA . In return she will gain insights from them to the mutual benefit of all. SAC Morgan serves our organization with great distinction," commented Paul D. Delacourt, Assistant Director in Charge.

The Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) is the principal investigative arm of the Department of Justice, charged with defending the United States from domestic terrorism and enforcing federal laws. It employs over 35,000 individuals with diverse backgrounds and skills who investigate crimes related to over 200 categories of federal law. The mission of the FBI is to protect the American people and uphold the Constitution of the United States. Special Agents enforce over 300 federal statutes and conduct criminal and national security investigations.

Learn more at <https://www.fbi.gov/>.

The Exceptional Women Awardees Foundation (EWA) selects high potential,

Special Agent in Charge. FBI Los Angeles, Voviette Morgan

“Special Agent in Charge, Voviette Morgan is an example of one of the finest leaders in the FBI, having dedicated her life over the past 25 years to the safety of the people of the United States of America,” commented Lorraine Segil, Chair and CEO of The Exceptional Women Awardees Foundation.”

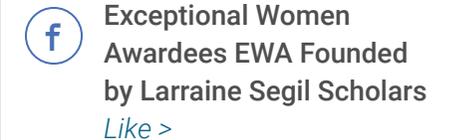

Share Article

Contact Author

LARRAINE SEGIL

Exceptional Women Awardees Foundation
3106781499
Email >

VISIT WEBSITE

upper-career Exceptional Women from multiple industries, develops and mentors them with guidance and career redesign advice to propel them to sustainable success - one woman at a time. Their year-long program enables the EWA to be connected for life to their ever-expanding EWA global network, as their fellow women leaders move into positions of significance. Learn more at The Exceptional Women Awardees Foundation <https://www.exceptionalwomenawardees.com/>.

Share article on social media or email:

View article via:

