LOS ANGELES (PRWEB) JANUARY 28, 2020

The Exceptional Women Awardees Foundation today announced that after interviews with multiple candidates ,Papia Gambelin, President of Platinum Advisors, has been selected to join their Cohort of Women Leaders for the January 2020 Awards.

"Papia Gambelin is recognized throughout California as a leader in government and public affairs. For more than 15 years she has worked with emerging and well-established companies in a variety of industries including energy, transportation, development and the environment. Her specialties include crisis management, communications, and political strategy. " commented Lorraine Segil, Chair and CEO of EWA. "Before becoming President of Platinum Advisors, Papia spent ten years as the Directors of Local and Public Affairs Enterprise Wide for PG&E. Her unusual specialty adds value to EWA and we are pleased to welcome her."

"We congratulate Papia for being admitted into the EWA. Her skills and the breadth and depth of the network capabilities will have good synergy, and she will be greatly advantaged by having leaders, like herself, with whom to discuss the challenges and opportunities of growing companies." said Darius Anderson, Founder and CEO of Platinum Advisors.

Platinum Advisors is California's premier government relations and lobbying firm with offices in Silicon Valley, Sacramento, San Francisco and Washington DC.
